In November of 2021, he was inspired to start RCIA and was happily baptized in April at St. Mary's Church in East Islip. Matt had the biggest heart, and kept room for so much in his life. He loved traveling, meeting new people, watching fireworks, playing disc golf, Schmigos, bourbon and the finer things in life. Anytime he was dealing a hand of Texas hold em, you could expect him to say "remember to tip your dealer!". He loved playing the drums and was fondly called "Matty Sticks" in the Fragale Family band. He took pride in his home on Long Island and always had a project that he was working on to beautify his home. His passion for graphic design manifested in the creation of his company Nimbl Media, though he designed logos and prints for his family and friends pro-bono. He loved the band Rebelution and proudly attended over 10 concerts. It was common to find him watching college

I'm so sad to hear this story. Matthew sounds like a fabulous person. I'm glad though you both found and loved each other even if it was for such a short time.
I know he will live on through your beautiful baby girl. God bless you all. SIP Matthew.
